

COURT FINDS STRIKE BREAKERS WERE GUILTY

GIVE NOTICE THAT THE CASE WILL BE APPEALED TO THE DISTRICT COURT.

The strike breakers, who were arrested a week ago on the charge of "carrying weapons," convicted and released on habeas corpus proceedings, were again convicted yesterday in the justice court; this time on the charge of carrying "concealed" weapons.

As before, the same penalty was pronounced. L. Smith was sentenced to pay a fine of $75, pay all costs and serve a term of thirty days in the county jail. His colleagues, or associates, practically received the same sentence with the exception that their fines amounted to only $50 in each case.

Their confinement in the county jail was merely a matter of minutes, for at 4 o'clock, accompanied by their counsel, the party appeared again in the justice court, and notice was given that the case would be appealed. The men were released on a cash bond of $200 each, and it was announced that the appeal would be filed in the district court today.

Throughout the proceedings the judges' desk in the court room resembled a regular arsenal. Revolvers of all descriptions, some being of the latest make, while several appeared to have done service during the unpleasantness with England in 1812, constituted the collection, and were taken from the prisoners at the time of their arrest. Two of the "gats" were at least twelve inches in length and would require a man with more than ordinary nerve to discharge the guns.

GYMNASTS ARE IN FINE SHAPE FOR THEIR BIG SHOW

VOLUNTEERS EXHIBITION WILL CONTAIN MANY SENSATION-AL ACTS.

Arrangements are being rapidly perfected for the grand gymnastic exhibition, which will be given on Friday evening at the Nevada theater. The affair is under the auspices of the volunteer firemen, and the corps of efficient athletes who will appear in numerous stunts, have been carefully trained by Professor William Schaffer. The rehearsals are being continued and each evening the bunch are carefully put through their paces. The pyramid building class have reached a point of perfection that the act cannot help but result in a tremendous ovation. This can also be said of the ladies' class, the members of which will present an interesting act.

The tickets, which were placed on sale several days ago, are rapidly being disposed of and indications point to the house holding a record breaking attendance.

WORKINGS OF MONTANA LOOKING BETTER DAILY

EXTENSIONS OF VEINS ARE UN-
COVERED BY VIGOROUS PROSPECTING.

It was generally reported around town yesterday that an important strike had been made in the Montana, but this idea was refuted by the officials of the company. It is understood that the underground workings of the company are looking better each day, and of late quite a quantity of new ore bodies have been blocked out. By this it is not meant that new strikes have been made, but the workings have encountered new bodies that were extensions of veins formerly worked. In the stope sent up from the 300-foot level, a body of ore was recently run into which proved to be a portion of a vein known to exist in that area.

SHERIFF OWENS IS MARRIED LAST NIGHT AT RENO

POPULAR COUNTY OFFICIAL
TAKES UNTO HIMSELF A WIFE.

(Special to the Bonanza.)
RENO, April 12.—Sheriff J. J. Owens of Nye county, and Miss Ida M. Nellus, of Reno, were quietly married in this city this evening.

When Sheriff Owens left Tonopah Monday morning, his trip ostensibly was for the purpose of attending to official business. But the above dispatch gives the true state of affairs, and now congratulations are in order. The popular county official let a few of his intimate friends into the secret some weeks ago and since has been making all the necessary preparations.

The bride is one of the popular members of Reno's society and has resided in that city for several years. It was on one of the sheriff's trips to Reno and Carson that the acquaintance started, and it was on another trip that the engagement resulted. The last trip is the culmination of the courtship, and in a few days the couple will return here where they will make their future home.

An ovation such as has not been witnessed here for several years will probably be tendered the couple on their arrival, for it is assured that every friend of Sheriff Owens will desire to extend congratulations.

At the meeting of the Tonopah Elks last evening the members proposed meeting the blushing bridegroom and bride with a brass band, which may be done.

DEMOCRATS TO HAVE FEED FEST THIS EVENING

OCCASION WILL BE REPLETE WITH SPEECHES AND ADDRESSES.

Tie your children to the bed posts and be sure that the watch dog is chained to his accustomed place tonight. Also have all the burglar alarms in working order, for there is no telling what may happen ere the sun shines again.

For on this occasion the unfettered, unwashed and some of them, unwilling, will commune with the party leaders, as per the notices sent out.

In other words the democrats of Nye county will gather around the banquet board at Exchange hall and some great things are expected in the way of oratory. Each diner will have a chance to say something, and it is expected that the party will be in progress for several days, or until each and every one of the assemblage has made his oratorical disbursements. The followers of the "banner of the mule" are requested to please remember that it will cost just $2.50 for the privilege of partaking of the soup, olives, pie, and the party who fails to kick through with that amount—well, no money, no dinner.

Ed Malley, who is one of the committee, will be on hand to preserve order, and if it proves necessary, he will be assisted by numerous sergeants at arms.

The occasion is designated as one whereby the democrats can fittingly commemorate the birthday of Thomas Jefferson, the founder of the party which has existed one hundred years. It promises to be as good as a circus and undoubtedly the fest will be fairly well attended.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will hold a special meeting at the church this afternoon at 2 p. m.

Secretary.

GET OUT THE BULLION THE MINT DOES THE REST

ROUND MOUNTAIN ARE IN ORE.

J. A. Buchanan, who with his son, J. A. Jr., who is the youngest leaser in the state, came down from Round Mountain on Sunday last, is much encouraged at the way things are looking in the camp and in talking to a Bonanza man last night said:

"Of course I am pleased at the way the Blue Jackets are showing up and as the days go by the output is getting larger from each lease; out there we have long since ceased getting excited at any new strike that is made on the property and we are just plugging along and getting out the bullion.

There are six sets of leasers on the ground and all of them are in ore which I think is a pretty good record for any property, and when I say they are in ore, I do not mean that they are getting values of five or ten dollars, I mean ore that will yield them mill returns of twenty or over.

"On some of the surface that we could not send to the mill and make any money we have taken to the Daisy and used their sluice boxes and the result has been that a number of the boys have had an average return of about $8 a yard from the cleanups, which when you hear them talking about dollar dirt being good in California, is not so bad.

"There are about twenty-five men working on the Bluejackets and the leases are all considered a valuable asset by those who own them.

"Mr. Powell, who has charge of the property, is an experienced miner and it would not surprise me at all to see the leasers this year double their output of last year.

"I hope by this fall to have a mill on the ground and this will enable us to handle some of the lower grades of ore, of which there is a good tonnage already in sight.

"All of the other properties in the camp are in good shape and I look for great activity there this summer; of course we have been handicapped somewhat by the washouts which held up freight on the Austin road, but like everything else, that is adjusting itself.

We have producing mines, good leases, fine hotel accommodations, excellent stores, and what more could you want? It is the same old story with, get out the bullion—the mint does the rest."

ZADIG WILL OPERATE LEASE AT ROUND MOUNTAIN

FORMS LEASING COMPANY ON RECENT VISIT TO THIS SECTION.

Herman Zadig, the well known San Francisco broker, while in Tonopah last week completed arrangements for the formation of a leasing company to operate on the estate owned by the Round Mountain Comstock company.

The ground owned by this company is considered one of the most valuable holdings in the camp and with the formation of the leasing company above mentioned, the property should, before long, take its place among the producers of the camp.

A hoist has been installed and a shaft sunk to a depth of 300 feet and it is understood that the new leasers will put the shaft down at least two hundred feet more before doing any extensive crosscutting.

Engineers who have examined the property during the past two months are of the opinion that the Sphinx ledge will be cut with a little more depth and also that a number of cross stringers will be encountered before the 500 level is reached.
